CUISINE EXPERIENCE THROUGH A LOCAL'S EYES

Prepare for an authentic local culinary experience in Quito that begins with a convenient hotel pick-up followed by a visit to a vibrant local market, where your senses will delight in the collection of colors and aromatic local produce. Your guide will introduce you to some of the unique fruits found in Ecuador.

Guided by a skilled chef, an expert in elevating traditional flavors and local meals to international standards, you'll handpick the finest, freshest ingredients, setting the stage for an incredible culinary journey. Accompanied by our representative, you will then proceed to the restaurant for an interactive cooking lesson, where you will enjoy a hands-on immersive journey around Ecuador and its gastronomy following the lead of our expert chef.

This culinary experience culminates in a delightful lunch featuring the dishes you've prepared. As you savor your creations, you'll also uncover the rich culinary heritage of Ecuador, indulging in the flavors of the region

As your meal comes to an end and you head back to the hotel, take a moment to reflect on your time at the market, reminiscing about your favorite moments of this experience where you not only savored something new and different but also learned new recipes and cooking secrets. Most importantly you discovered local traditions and the way of life in Quito.
