

TROPICAL FOREST QUEST - CERRO BLANCO

Half Day Tour in Guayaquil

Also known as 'The Pearl of the Pacific,' Guayaquil is a bustling city rich in culture and a blend of modern and colonial architecture. As the largest and one of the oldest cities in Ecuador, it captivates visitors with its historic district, fantastic heritage sites like Santa Ana Hill, and the modern boardwalk, Malecón 2000. Additionally, the city still showcases remnants of fortifications that once protected it from pirate attacks.

TROPICAL FOREST QUEST - CERRO BLANCO

Embark on a journey to uncover a hidden gem, just a brief 30-minute drive from the modern city of Guayaquil!

From the moment you are picked up from your hotel, prepare to be enchanted by the melodious nature sounds and lush tropical foliage that greet you upon arrival at Cerro Blanco. This meticulously maintained private ecological reserve offers an unparalleled opportunity to immerse yourself in the wonders of nature and wildlife.

As you explore the winding trails, keep your eyes peeled for captivating insects, vibrant plants, graceful butterflies, and a symphony of birdsongs. Along the paths, you'll discover a fascinating world of local wooded trees, while marveling at intricate details such as termite trails, iridescent beetles, and other intriguing wildlife like iguanas and fruit bats. A bird watching station perched atop a bluff, offering panoramic views and the chance to spot a variety of hummingbirds, tanagers, and even the iconic green macaws, native to the area.

Following this unforgettable natural escapade, you will be dropped-off at your hotel in Guayaquil. End of Services.
